Background and Summary:

Waiver for Alternate Credit for graduation for 11 Desert Pride Students – Prior to graduation, PED requires that every student meet 1 credit requirement for Career Cluster/Workplace Readiness or a third credit in a language other than English. The limitations of DPA’s master schedule allows for students to take the following Career Readiness coursework to comply with this requirement. Criminal Justice, Communication Skills Career Education, Third credit in a language other than English. The students in question took Communication Skills Career Education to fulfill this requirement.

Recommendation:

Board Approval to submit the Graduation Waiver Request to the NMPED.
