Approved By: Efren Yturralde Date – April 15, 2015

Background and Summary:

Juvenile Community Corrections provides pre-sentencing alternatives to children's courts for more than 300 adjudicated New Mexico juveniles each year (of which approximately 25 are students in GISD) that might otherwise be institutionalized. Each client is court-ordered and must adhere to a specific plan of care that includes intensive supervision, educational and employment assistance, community service and/or victim restitution, and institutional transition services.
